

University of Mississippi eGrove

Correspondence

James W. Silver Collection

10-8-1962

Ralph G. Jones to Professor Silver, 8 October 1962

Ralph G. Jones

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/jws_corr

Recommended Citation

Jones, Ralph G., "Ralph G. Jones to Professor Silver, 8 October 1962" (1962). Correspondence. 644.
https://egrove.olemiss.edu/jws_corr/644

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the James W. Silver Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Correspondence by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS
FAYETTEVILLE

DEPARTMENT OF GOVERNMENT

October 8, 1962

Dear Professor Silver,

Will you please give me the name of the current president of the Ole Miss AAUP Chapter? I am sure our Chapter here will want to send him the good word following our approaching meeting.

More personally, I want to express (as a son of Wilkinson County) my abiding faith in Ole Miss. Arkansas is not yet through its time of troubles, and it has helped many of us to remember the faith which William Faulkner expressed in man himself: that he will not only endure, but that he will also prevail. Both our universities should serve all our people --and in the main and in the end they are good people.

Sincerely,

Ralph G. Jones

Ralph G. Jones
Professor of Government
(Current President, UA AAUP Chapter)

Professor James Silver
Department of History
University of Mississippi
University, Mississippi